

sirable at that time to reconsider the language in this section, a motion for reconsideration by the Committee on Style is always in order, and the Chair would recognize it at that time.

I think we can make better time.

Delegate Adkins, would you be willing to make such a motion?

DELEGATE ADKINS: I would. I think also that a change needs to be made in section 4.09.

THE PRESIDENT: For what purpose does Delegate Mentzer rise?

DELEGATE MENTZER: To call your attention to the fact that the words "presiding officer" are used at least two times in the finance section.

THE PRESIDENT: Presiding officer of the Senate, or both houses?

DELEGATE MENTZER: Both houses.

THE PRESIDENT: Well, it seems to the Chair, and I do not have the two articles before me, that there is no inconsistency in referring to the presiding officer of the two houses in each of those articles and in referring to the president of the Senate in this article. That is why I made the suggestion.

Delegate Penniman.

DELEGATE PENNIMAN: Mr. President, there is one reference in the legislative branch article, LB-1, to the presiding officer of the Senate and the presiding officer of the House. On other occasions it refers to the presiding officer of the two houses, and it would certainly be correct to leave it presiding officers.

THE PRESIDENT: All right.

Delegate Adkins, this would be Amendment No. 5 with respect to section 4.09. Change "presiding officer" to "president" wherever it appears.

Is there a second?

(Whereupon, the motion was duly seconded.)

Is there any discussion?

(There was no response.)

Are you ready for the question?

(Call for the question.)

The Clerk will ring the quorum bell.

The question arises on the adoption of Amendment No. 5, to change the words

"presiding officer" in section 4.05 wherever they appear to "president."

A vote Aye is a vote for the amendment. A vote No is a vote against.

Cast your votes.

Has every delegate voted? Does any delegate desire to change his vote?

(There was no response.)

The Clerk will record the vote.

There being 93 votes in the affirmative and 0 in the negative, the motion is carried and the amendment is adopted.

Amendment No. 6 in section 4.10, to change the words "presiding officer" wherever they appear to the word "president."

Do you make such a motion, Delegate Adkins?

DELEGATE ADKINS: Yes, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there a second?

(Whereupon, the motion was duly seconded.)

Is there any discussion?

(There was no response.)
